

Part-time Manager

Position Summary: A SPENGA manager is a positive, energetic and efficient individual who warmly welcomes and takes care of members.

- Qualifications:
- Strong management and leadership abilities
 - Previous sales experience required; preferably high-end goods or services
 - Willingness to learn. Candidates must be able to adapt to our exciting new fitness philosophy
 - Motivation and drive
 - Excellent customer service and sales skills
 - Experience and/or certifications in personal training, group training, Spin and yoga are a plus

- Job Requirements:
- Sell memberships and retail
 - Meet and exceed sales and retention expectations
 - Retain and increase client participation
 - Set up and reset studio equipment before and after classes.
 - Maintain clean facility
 - As a SPENGA ambassador, managers will promote, sell and add to the SPENGA culture in and out of the studio.